From letter from Irma Walton Druding to Mr H. A Druding of Philadelphia dated October 15, 1962

Dear Mr. Druding:

My name is Irma Druding Walton. I am compiling a family tree, and I hope that you will be able to help me. Since Druding is an uncommon name, I feel sure that we are distantly related.

In 1846, three Druding boys brought their families to the United States from Oldenburg, Germany. My great-grandfather, William, was ten years old. They settled in Philadelphia and were silversmiths by trade.
Later William moved to Indiana and settled near Batesville.

His wife's name was Theresa Reight. During the Civil War, William made saddles for the Northern Army.

William had a brother John, who was a fireman in Philadelphia. John's house burned, his wife and two children died in the fire. After the accident John joined his brother in Indiana.

William was born August 20, 1836, and died June 28, 1905.
John was born in 1848 and died in 1911. They are both buried near Batesville.

If we are related, perhaps you might know the names of William's parents. I would be most grateful for any information you might be able to send me.

Thank you for your time and any assistance you might be able to give me.

Yours truly,

Irma D. Walton,
3521 Shelby Street,
Indianapolis 27, Indiana.

Notes for Francis "Frank" Anton Druding:

By John Francis Druding Jr (1976- )

Did you know there is a park in California named after the Drudings? It is called "Druding Park" in the City of San Jacinto, CA, near LA.

https://www.sanjacintoca.gov/.../parks.../parks/druding\_park

It was named after Frank A Druding, who was born in 1854 in Philadelphia, his parents being German born. He was a jeweler by trade, coming to California alone in 1895, at 41 years old. He ranched on the mesa for some time, finally selling out and going to Vosburg, CA. He was a Shriner, a member of the local Eastern Star, the Masons and also of the Knights Templar or Riverside. In 1906, at the age of 52, he survived a train wreck in which train cars flipped over and landed in a pond, flooding with water. He escaped with only bruises and cuts on his legs.

According to his Obituary, he was "one of those lovable and honest souls that made the earth richer for their being in it". His obituary goes on to say: "Separated far from all blood-kin he may to some have seemed at times very much alone, but he knew that the whole valley called him "friend" that he was loved by all and by none more SO than the little children, many of whom called him "'Drudy."

Generation 6

The city of San Jacinto named the park after him in 1926 at the request of the local Mason chapter.

Knowing the majority of the Drudings are in the Philly area, when I stumbled upon "Druding Park" I got wondering how the heck we wound up with a park named after us in California. I was able to figure all this out via old newspaper clippings and records, and was able to map him into our family tree. Frank is my 2nd cousin, 4x removed.

FI-4 Hermann Gerhard Bernard Druding, cabinetmaker, b. April 15, 1854, son of Joh. Franz. Arnold Druding and Charlotte Meyer, m. in Vechta on September 26, 1878 to Christina Anna Seifert, b. in Daren near Bakum, June 23, 1850, d. in Cloppenburg May 13, 1888, 37 years old, daughter of Inspector Johann Seifert, Elis. Fischer.

- Children:

- Clemens August Carl, b. July 13, 1879 Godparents: Clem. Bern. Fortmann, Charlotte Meyer, called Druding, instead of Cath. Druding, called Kramer
- Josef Edward Gerhard, b. September 21, 1880 Godparents: Jos. Meyer, Elis. Marg. Seifert, maiden name Fischer
- Johann Arnold August Max, b. May 14, 1882 Godparents: Arnold Druding, Auguste Druding
- Maria Elisabeth Wilhelmine, b. May 31, d. October 20, 1886 Godparents: Freifraulein Marg. von Freitag, instead of Elis. Nolte, Wilh. Taphorn
- Clemens Ernst, b. January 22, 1888, d. May 2, 1891 Godparents: Clemens Kramer, Elis. Emilie Fortmann

Note: Freifraulein is a title of the nobility, l i t e r a l l y meaning a free and single lady. Hermann Gerhard Bernard Druding was called in Cloppenburg Druding's master. Since he wanted to emigrate to the United States, he arranged a furniture auction. Among the furniture he had a number of new chests. A few of these chests were only boxes on which he nailed key plates to pretend that they were drawers.

1/9/24 - Gerhard appears to have come over to the US twice, once in 1891 and again in 1905

1/9/24 - Did Gerhard have another wife? I was researching Gerhard's son, Charles, and I came across a notation in find a grave that hinted at another wife that died in Germany. Perhaps this is who Irma Walton Druding was referring to? John Druding's death certificate says "Don't know" for mother. Charles says "Unknown" for Mother and Father.

Druding first married Mary Pommer in 1902 - they had 2 children, Mattie, born 1903, and Carl Francis, born 1904/died 1905

In 1906 Charles married Margaret Davidson. They had eight children - Anna, Dennis, Francis (Frank), Catherine, Elizabeth, Joseph and Regmia (per census records), plus Carl (b1912/d1913 per death certificate). Charles' father was Gerhard Druding. His mother's name is not known - apparently she died in Germany. Gerhard's 2nd wife, Anna Ostendorf, using the Druding name, brought Charles' younger siblings (Josef, Johann, Lewis and Maria) from Germany in 1891 -- apparently Gerhard and Charles came to the US earlier to prepare the way for them. (Gerhard & Anna married in Philadelphia in 1891) Charles became a naturalized citizen of the US in December 1916.

12/24/24 - Revisiting the missing link below.

There was a lot of conflicting data from other trees that lead me to question my initial conclusion so I've taken another look at it. I can now conclude that Gerhard Druding is my great, great grandfather and is the father of John C Druding, my great Grandfather. Here is how I concluded this:

Gerhard's Death Certificate connects him to his mother (Charlotte) and father (Arnold). It also links him to 428 Wolf Street. It establishes his birth and death:

b. 4/15/1854

d. 10/10/1912

It mentions his wife is from England.

The 1900 Census confirms his wife is named Anne, confirms his son John was born in 1882 and confirms his address is 428 Wolf.

His obituary confirms his wife is named Anne (nee: Ostendorf), his death was in 1912 and his birth in 1854, and his address was 428 Wolf.

1/15/24- Gerhard's Death Certificate is the "missing link" that links him to his parents, Arnold and Charlotte. This was a connection that Nanny was unable to make in her research. Nanny's research confirms he lived at 428 Wolf Street and that is the same address that is on his death certificate that cites Arnold and Charlotte. It also cites Charlotte's birth country as England, which is also in her other records.

Notes for Heinrich Wilhelm Druding:
1/31/2025 - Added by John F Druding Jr.:

From letter from Irma Walton Druding to Mr H. A Druding of Philadelphia dated October 15, 1962

Dear Mr. Druding:

My name is Irma Druding Walton. I am compiling a family tree, and I hope that you will be able to help me. Since Druding is an uncommon name, I feel sure that we are distantly related.

In 1846, three Druding boys brought their families to the United States from Oldenburg, Germany. My great-grandfather, William, was ten years old. They settled in Philadelphia and were silversmiths by trade.

Later William moved to Indiana and settled near Batesville.

His wife's name was Theresa Reight. During the Civil War, William made saddles for the Northern Army.

William had a brother John, who was a fireman in Philadelphia. John's house burned, his wife and two children died in the fire. After the accident John joined his brother in Indiana.

William was born August 20, 1836, and died June 28, 1905.

John was born in 1848 and died in 1911. They are both buried near Batesville.

If we are related, perhaps you might know the names of William's parents. I would be most grateful for any information you might be able to send me.

Thank you for your time and any assistance you might be able to give me.

Yours truly,

Irma D. Walton,
3521 Shelby Street,
Indianapolis 27, Indiana.

Notes for Charles C Druding:
1/10/24 - Comparing the Charles':

Charles from my family:

- b. 18 Jul 1879
- d. 17 Jan 1956

1/9/24 - Found this at the Find a Grave Link below: Druding first married Mary Pommer in 1902 - they had 2 children, Mattie, born 1903, and Carl Francis, born 1904/died 1905

In 1906 Charles married Margaret Davidson. They had eight children - Anna, Dennis, Francis (Frank), Catherine, Elizabeth, Joseph and Regmia (per census records), plus Carl (b1912/d1913 per death certificate). Charles' father was Gerhard Druding. His mother's name is not known - apparently she died in Germany. Gerhard's 2nd wife, Anna Ostendorf, using the Druding name, brought Charles' younger siblings (Josef, Johann, Lewis and Maria) from Germany in 1891 -- apparently Gerhard and Charles came to the US earlier to prepare the way for them. (Gerhard & Anna married in Philadelphia in 1891) Charles became a naturalized citizen of the US in December 1916.

Charles C Druding and Margaret E Brennan had the following children:

- i. MARY DRUDING was born on 09 Jun 1903 in Philadelphia, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA.

Notes for Mary Druding:

1/9/24 - Might be "Mattie" who is Charles Daugher from his first marriage to Mary Pommer. This idea comes from a Find a Grave reference for Charles:

Charles Druding first married Mary Pommer in 1902 - they had 2 children, Mattie, born 1903, and Carl Francis, born 1904/died 1905

In 1906 Charles married Margaret Davidson. Notes for John Charles Drueding:
5/25/25:

1/9/24 - His death certificate seems to say his mother is unknown.

12/9/24 - Need to resolve the conflict of John's naturalization records with the WWI registration card, which says his birth year is 1883, vs 1880.

- Kathryn Druding's Family Tree document says: 3/12/1882
- His death certificate seems to say 1882. His age on his final death certificate says he was 59. So 1942 - 59 = 1883
- The 1900 Census says: May, 1882
- 1910 Census says: 28 yrs. 1910 - 28 = 1882
- 1920 Census says: 37 yrs. 1920 - 37 = 1883
- 1930 Census says: 50yrs. 1930 - 50 = 1,880
- 1940 Census says: 56yrs. 1940 - 56 = 1,884

Notes for Stella Druding:

12/14/24 - Generated from AI based on 1940 Census:

Based on information from the 1940 United States Federal Census

Stella Pasquariello, a 30-year-old married woman, resided in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1940. She was born around 1910 and identified as white. Stella lived with her husband, Joseph Pasquariello, who was also 30 years old, and their 3-year-old son, Joseph. Their home was located on So 10th Street in Philadelphia.

According to the data, Stella had not attended school or college and had completed her education up to the 8th grade in elementary school. In 1939, she did not work and had no income from any other sources.

Stella's inferred residence in 1935 was also Philadelphia, indicating that she had been living in the same city for at least five years. She did not reside on a farm during that time.

Although the data does not provide further information about Stella's life, it offers a glimpse into her household and living situation. The presence of a young child suggests that she and her husband were starting a family. The fact that she did not work in 1939 and had no income may indicate that she was primarily responsible for taking care of their son and managing the household.

Overall, Stella Pasquariello's data provides a snapshot of a married woman in her thirties, living in Philadelphia in 1940, and fulfilling traditional gender roles of the time.

Church in Carmel, IN. Vincent was preceded in death by his parents; his brothers David and Richard; his son Daniel J. Druding and his wife of 51 years, Marian, whom he married on May 31, 1958 at St. Hilary Catholic Church, Chicago. Michael V. Druding was born in Chicago on June 10, 1960 to Vincent J. and Marian Wallace Druding. Vincent and Michael are survived by Kristen A. (William) Bussick, Patrick R. (Jessica) Druding, Colleen M. (Jeffrey) Scariano, and Rev. Vincent J. Druding III; grandchildren, Taylor, Katey, Ben, and Zoey Bussick; Emma, Grace and Luke Scariano; and Nicolas and Liam Druding. Vincent was reared in Edison Park, IL, and graduated from St. Julianna's Grade School and St. George Catholic High School in Chicago, of which he was an active and proud alumnus. He attended Beloit College, where he played football and basketball, Florida State University, and completed his college education at Loyola University in Chicago. Vincent served as a radio operator in the U.S. Army and was stationed in Bremerhaven and Gelhnausen, Germany from 1954-55. Vincent followed his father who worked for the Dupont Corporation in Chicago. He completed his career as a manufacturing sales representative, a sole proprietor of Carmel Coatings Consultants. In recent years, he worked for Target Corporation and MKM Logistics. Vincent was one of the greatest storytellers, and he was an avid sports fan, especially of the Chicago Bears and the Chicago Cubs. He enjoyed telling stories around the dinner table and making people laugh. He had an uncanny ability to remember places, names, dates and stories of his experiences in life, he often recited the starting line-up of the 1954 Chicago Cubs and it brought him joy to share them with others. In recent years, he spent much of his free time at the football, basketball, baseball, and soccer games of his grandkids. Vincent and Marian moved their family to Carmel, IN in 1977 and joined Our Lady of Mount Carmel parish, where he coached many sports teams, served on the parish council, and volunteered in many associations. Vincent had a high threshold for pain and seemed to have nine lives: he survived a car accident, a mugging, a stabbing, a shooting, and triple bypass surgery. He rarely complained. He could talk to almost anyone about anything, and will be missed for his memorable stories and the gift of laughter that he shared with all. Family and friends will gather for visitation on Monday, March 15, 2010 at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Catholic Church in Carmel, IN (146th St./Oakridge Rd.) from 3:30 to 9 p.m. On the 15th, there will be a rosary with Evening Prayer of the Office of the Dead and a preached homily at 7:00 pm; eulogies to follow. Family and friends will gather again at the church Tuesday, March 16, 2010 from 9 to 10:30 a.m., followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 11 a.m. The burial will take place at Our Lady of Peace Cemetery after the Mass. In lieu of flowers, any financial contributions can be made to The Wheeler Mission, 254 N. Delaware Ave., Indianapolis, IN 46204 and The O'Connor House, P.O. Box 1061, Carmel, IN 46082 (or online at www.oconnorhouse.org).
